|----|--|--------------------------|--------------------------|
| 16 | Do you have your Channel Name?
Think about some of the top YouTube channels.
Names like PewdiePie, PrankvsPrank, Smosh etc.
These are all very unique and memorable names.
Avoid long and complex names for your channel.
If you are going to be your brand i.e if you intend to become an authority in your niche then it's fine to use your real name but if you want to create a brand then think of something else you can use or take a look at other channels in your niche. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 17 | Is your name available on all other social media platforms?
A quick way to check this is by using Namecheckr | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 18 | Do you have a domain name?
You will want to drive traffic from your YouTube videos to a page on your blog or website. Ideally to keep things congruent then try and register the same name for your blog/website as the one you're using on all your social media platforms.
You can register a domain name and easily build a website with GoDaddy | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 19 | Do you have a nice profile image of yourself? | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 20 | Do you have a logo?
If not you can create logo's very quickly and easily using Canva
You can find full training on how to use Canva here | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
